Night Gunfire in Dallas Causes Minor Damage

DALLAS, Tex., June 25 (AP) —Sporadic gunfire broke out Tuesday night near Parkland Hospital in Northwest Dallas but police said none was wounded. Minor damage to several trucks was reported.

Police Chief Charles Batchelor said the shooting, from an undetermined source, started about 10:45 p.m. Officers flooded the area and, Batchelor said, a crowd of about 20 Negroes quickly dispersed. The cause of the incident was unknown.

Post 6.26.63